MOSLEH FANATICS FIGHT IN SURABAYA

Religious Leaders in Charges Against Tanks—New Paul in Ciskei

BATAVIA, Jan. 26—Discord among Moslem leaders of the Republic of Indonesia seems certain to spread to the provinces, with the prospects of religious fanaticism as a factor. The capital of the Republic, Surabaya, was reported today by military observers to have erupted in religious disturbance.

Religious fanatics have been holding a series of demonstrations in protest against the use of Moslem personnel in Surabaya and in other cities of the Republic. The demonstrations have been accompanied by outbreaks of violence, with several deaths reported.

The situation has led to a call for the resignation of the Moslem leader of the Republic, President Abdul Karim, by a group of Moslem leaders who have been critical of his policies.

The military observers reported today that the situation in Surabaya was rapidly deteriorating, with the prospect of a full-scale Moslem uprising.

In another development, the military observers reported that the Indonesian Nationalist Party has been weakened by internal discord, with the prospect of a split in the party.

Central Java Diary Found

BATAVIA, Jan. 26—A diary found in the possession of a Moslem leader of the Republic of Indonesia has revealed the extent of the Moslem network of influence in the capital of the Republic.

The diary, which was discovered by military observers in the possession of the Moslem leader, revealed the extent of the Moslem network of influence in the capital of the Republic. The diary contained references to the activities of a number of Moslem leaders, including the Moslem leader of the Republic, President Abdul Karim.

The military observers reported that the discovery of the diary had cast doubt on the Moslem leader's claim that he had no knowledge of the activities of the Moslem network.

In another development, the military observers reported that the Indonesian Nationalist Party has been weakened by internal discord, with the prospect of a split in the party.
